

Principal Profile

Principal Name: Council For A Strong America

Business Or Interest: We are funded by nonprofit private and public foundations. We work and interact with organizations of law enforcement leaders, military retiree organizations, business leader organizations, and faith leader organizations.

Lobbying Interests: We work predominantly on a range of issues affecting children from birth through high school. This includes home visiting programs, child care, early education, and K-12 education issues (including physical activity and school nutrition). We also work on issues surrounding community colleges.
